

SHORT BIOGRAPHY:

Mr. ZHAO Zhangshan has been the the senior advisor for passenger department at UIC since 2014. He is mainly invovled in high speed activities in UIC as well as the coordination and communication between UIC and China railways.

He joined China Academy of Railway Sciences(CARS) in 2007 and was responsible for international affairs and coordination with international organizations. He was the international affairs coodinator for many major railway events in China. He also got involved in the railway projects in many other countries such as Saudi Arabia, Romania, Africa, etc.