

---

About A. B. Abdolmohammadi

---

Amir Bahador Abdolmohammadi is a Master Civil Engineer (2008) with a Bachelor Degree in Railway Engineering (2001) of Iran University of Science and Technology. He started his railway worker career in 2001. Between 2001 and 2014, he carried out several operational functions as Project Manager and Managing Director Technical Deputy at METRA Consulting Engineers Company. Since 2014, he has been the General Director of Station Services at Islamic Republic of Iran Railways (RAI). He has spent more than fourteen years of his career in transportation. He has developed numerous railways infrastructure projects among which are several railway stations and gained experience in both private and governmental sectors.