

Marco Ladenthin (36) and his team manage the business strategy of DB Station&Service and develop new business concepts with a focus on innovation topics.

Before, Marco Ladenthin was responsible for strategy and business development in different positions of Hochtief AG. He started his career as a management consultant.

Marco Ladenthin holds degrees in business administration and economics both from Germany and the UK. He lives in Berlin.