

Biography Marie Delaplace

DELAPLACE Marie

marie.delaplace@u-pem.fr

Full professor in spatial and urban planning - Parisian Urban School
Deputy Director of the Laboratory Lab'Urba - University of Paris-Est

Marie Delaplace has got a PhD and a HDR in Economics about innovations and places.

She is working on the wider effects of High Speed rail since more than 10 years.

With other researchers, she has published more than 20 papers in academic journals and 10 book chapters on this subject and presented more than 40 communications in international conferences.

She has led 3 research contracts for the regional council of Champagne-Ardenne and for the PREDIT (French program of research, experimentation and innovation in land transport) on the socio-economic impacts of High Speed rail.

She is member of the scientific council of the Observatory of the French High-speed Line Bretagne-Pays-de-la-Loire and she has participated in many professional conferences on this subject.

From 2011 to 2014, she was also the facilitator of the French Association AsTRES (Association Tourism Teaching and Research).

In January 2015, she has organized the international conference “High speed rail in the city” in Paris-Est University.