

About Mr. Rajiva Ranjan Verma

Mr. Rajiva Ranjan Verma is presently the Director General of the Indian Railway Protection Force and also the Chairman of Security Platform of the UIC.

He joined the coveted Indian Police Service in 1978, and since then, has an outstanding track record in various facets of policing. He has also served as the Director of North Eastern Police Academy in India, and as the Special Director General, responsible for security of all vital installations and airports of India. He also headed a mission to link all police stations in India.

He has attended many international programmes and trainings in U.K., U.S.A., Japan, and France etc.

In recognition to his professional contribution, he was awarded the Indian Police Medal for Meritorious Service and also the President's Police Medal.

His philanthropic contribution, in the fields of health and education among the rural poor, has been recognized and awarded internationally.